

Snake Game

This project focuses on creating interactive quiz possibly with a database of questions from C programming and a snake game which increases the interest among students to attend the quizzes

Snake Game

The program covers most of the important concepts in C programming. The final output is envisioned to be a user-friendly interactive quiz with which the user can gain significant knowledge and get entertainment with value-addition.